

Teacher Education

EDU 2202 Introduction to Education Field Experience Evaluation

Student's Name Elliott Kern Semester and Year Fall 2009
Grade /Subject 6th grade Language Arts School & Cooperating Teacher Hart Middle School - Mrs. Pellafone

This evaluation has been designed to provide the beginning education student with information about his/her strengths and limitations as a potential teacher. Please evaluate the student in the areas listed below by checking the appropriate boxes. Your comments would also be most helpful.

Key: 4-Advanced; Super performance, consistently applied at all appropriate times
3-Proficient; Consistent, appropriate application, solid performance
2-Basic; Minimal achievement, appropriate to situations

1-Awareness; The ability to describe, not yet applied
NA-Pre-preparation; No awareness or exposure

Professional Characteristics	4	3	2	1	NA
Is enthusiastic about teaching as a profession	✓
Demonstrates working knowledge of school and community	✓
Shows active interest and involvement in assigned activities	✓
Seeks and follows through on suggestions	✓
Shows sensitivity to students' learning differences	✓
Interacts in a professional manner with students	✓
Communicates in a clear and effective manner	✓
Personal Characteristics
Demonstrates adaptability to new experiences	✓
Illustrates genuine interest in students	✓
Displays an attitude conducive to effective teaching	✓
Indicates a sense of responsibility and dependability	✓
Attends and is punctual	✓
Has poise and self-confidence	✓
Presents appropriate grooming and appearance	✓

What is your overall evaluation of this student's field experience performance?

☒ Outstanding ☐ Very Good ☐ Satisfactory ☐ Unsatisfactory

Comments regarding preservice teachers' potential as a classroom teacher:

Elliott did an outstanding job. He jumped in and helped students with writing. He also was involved with the classes. At one point, Elliott stepped in and worked with the classes on finding good sources on the internet. The computer lab was down and we were scrambling to find a way →

Carol Pellafone
Cooperating Teacher Signature

12-10-09
Date

[Signature]
Student Signature

12-10-09
Date

Please return to: Office of Teacher Education
Rochester College
800 West Avon Road
Rochester Hills, MI 48307

8/12/2004

to show the students how to research. Elliott was able to use my Smartboard to cover the material.